

Script

Summary

The main character, "Over Easy" John was wronged by Bandit Leader Benedict Bad when he assassinated his beloved wife, Sunny. Over Easy "Over Easy" John has come to town to get his revenge, and will stop at nothing to make sure Bandit Leader Benedict gets what he deserves.

Act One

"Over Easy" John arrives in town and confronts Benedict Bad.

"Over Easy" John: Never thought I'd come 'round these parts again. Not after Sunny... Sigh.

Benedict Bad: Well, well. Lookee here. It's "Over Easy" John! What's got you riled up? Today's a... sunny day! Haha!

"Over Easy" John: Sunny may be gone, but her husband ain't Benedict! Let me give it to you like you gave it to her!

Benedict Bad: Get him, boys!

Benedict Bad runs away, and the bandits ambush Over Easy" John. He shoots them down and chases Benedict all the way into the bar.

Act Two

Benedict Bad runs outside of the bar where he finds two horses.

Benedict Bad: You'll never catch me alive, Over Easy... Need to get away...

Benedict Bad: This'll do. Try chasing me now, you crowbait!

Benedict Bad chooses the black horse, leaving the wounded horse "Poach" to "Over Easy" John. "Over Easy" John runs out and sees what Benedict left him.

"Over Easy" John: Damn you, Benedict! Come on now, Poach. I need you to pull through for me.

"Over Easy" John gets on Poach and chases after Benedict until he reaches the train.

Act Three

"Over Easy" John fights bandits on the train and chases Benedict Bad until they get to the train station. He fights a few more bandits and finally corners Benedict.

"Over Easy" John: Nowhere to run, Benedict. Put 'em up, and make your last stand.

Benedict Bad: Better hope you don't miss, "Over Easy" John.

"Over Easy" John: I only ever missed once. It won't happen again.

In their final battle, "Over Easy" John finally defeats Benedict Bad.

"Over Easy" John: Rest easy, Sunny...

"Over Easy" John rides off into the sunset with his new horse, Poach, knowing Sunny can now be at rest.